Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The coming of a savior who is a light to the nations continues to be the theme of the readings. Isaiah exhorts the Israelites to be glad and exult because they will bask in the glory of the Redeemer. When Jesus' ministry of preaching and healing began, his actions fulfilled the Old Testament prophecy. When St. Paul delivered the Gospel to the Gentiles he had to remind them that Christ was the focal point, not himself. Our human nature leads us to more easily embrace human things than heavenly things. The Holy Spirit gives us grace to see God's glory and redirect our focus toward Heaven. Our search for God's kingdom leads us to Jesus, the Light of the world. May we fully discover the depth of God's mercy and share our discovery with all.

Contributions last Weekend $10,868.00
*Stewardship is the grateful response of a
Christian disciple, who recognizes and receives
God's gifts and shares these gifts

"Perfection does not consist in not seeing the world, but in not having a taste or relish for it. In a word, the perfection of charity is the perfection of life; for the life of our soul is charity. The primitive Christians lived in the world in body but not in heart, and were nevertheless very perfect."

—St. Francis de Sales
