Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

If you have ever visited the Sistine Chapel in Rome, you have seen the famous ceiling panel depicting God reaching out to touch the outstretched finger of Adam. But did you notice that just below the ceiling, there is a series of perhaps lesser known paintings? Along one side of the chapel is a sequence of paintings illustrating pivotal scenes from the Old Testament. Along the opposite wall of the chapel are paintings that portray Jesus fulfilling each of those moments from the Old Testament. In today’s gospel, Jesus assures the disciples that he did not come to abolish (end/dismiss) the Law they had studied all of their lives. Rather he came to fulfill the Law – he came to put it into effect and make it real! Time and time again, the life and teaching of Jesus brings the ancient Jewish Law into the present. And that continues to be true today! How often are we guilty of interpreting the commandments to meet our situation? Jesus clarifies the very definite meaning of those laws handed to Moses ages and ages ago, and he goes on to give practical application of those laws in modern life, not only for his disciples, but also for us today.
