GO IN PEACE, GLORIFYING THE LORD BY YOUR LIFE.”

July 9, 2017

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

So what does it look like to glorify the Lord by your life? How, exactly, does one do that? Today's readings offer some options: Rejoice! Shout for joy! Praise His name! Extol Him! And then in the Gospel, Jesus prays, "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth..." He shows us how it is done! Yes, today's readings make it very clear how we are to live. And what a simple life it might be -- if only we didn't allow our hearts to get muddled up in the things of this world! Jesus says, "my yoke is easy, and my burden is light." A life lived for the Lord is free of worry and burden. Perhaps it is easier said than done, but obviously worth the effort.

Discovering Christ: St. Patrick's and Surrounding Parishes

Discovering Christ is a seven-week experience where anyone and everyone, from the baptized in the pews to the unbaptized, is invited to hear the Good News and personally encounter Jesus Christ. Discovering Christ helps people enter into or renew a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, experience the love of God the Father, and be empowered by the Holy Spirit to live as God's children.

St. Patrick's and the surrounding parishes will be hosting Discovering Christ beginning on September 13 through October 25 on Wednesday evenings from 6:30pm - 8:30pm as well as a retreat Saturday October 14. A free meal for all is included as part of the program followed by prayer, teaching, and small group discussion. There is no cost for the program and childcare will be provided.

Sign-ups and other information will be available soon. If you have questions please email stpatdiscoveringchrist@gmail.com or check out an informational video at http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5-QPh2_3n2k.

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION AND RESPONDING TO SCRIPTURE

Matthew 11:25-30

Jesus invites his followers, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." What do you find most appealing about this invitation?

Zechariah 9:9-10

The prophet Zechariah foreshadows a "just savior" who will "proclaim peace to the nations." Why do you think peace and justice are so often paired as divine attributes?

Romans 8:9, 11-13

Paul speaks about the tension between the flesh and the spirit in the life of a believer. In the reading, what is the role of the "Spirit of God" in this tension?

LIVE THE LITURGY •

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Jesus tells us, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." These words may seem a bit contradictory at first given how hard it can often be to be a disciple and live as Jesus taught. While the Gospel can be difficult, it is never a burden. On another occasion Jesus says of his Father, "It is mercy I desire, not sacrifice." God desires our hearts and when we give him our hearts we become free. We become free of ourselves and discover the joy that comes from serving God and others. We can easily get very rigid in terms of our faith, think that we know better, and place expectations on others that can be more of a burden than a source of new life. Are we willing to be open and learn from Jesus?

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:

What is unique or different about the way Catholics read and are exposed to the Bible?

Answer:

Catholics are exposed to Scripture primarily through the Sunday readings from a book known as the Lectionary. The Lectionary is a book of selected passages from the Bible set in the context of a liturgical season, such as Advent, Lent, or ordinary time. There are four readings assigned to any Sunday: the first reading (usually from the Old Testament), the responsorial psalm, the second reading (usually from a New Testament letter), and the Gospel reading.

These readings together give them a new context. The selected readings relate to one another in a unique manner that is not present in the Bible text itself. In close proximity to each other, these readings now have the opportunity to converse with each other in a way that would have not been possible before. A homilist pays attention to all four readings, preparing a reflection that speaks of this
