Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"...my word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will,
achieving the end for which I sent it."

The prophet Isaiah compares the word of the Lord to the snow and rain that waters the earth and makes it fertile. It was sent for a purpose and it does not return to the Lord without fulfilling that purpose. Jesus shares the Parable of the Seeds, and proclaims a similar message. The seed was designed for growth and fruitfulness. Both of these readings speak to a life of stewardship -- a life in which a person recognizes that he or she was created for a purpose and spends his or her life fulfilling that purpose! Woe to those who "have eyes but do not see." While those people may recognize their purpose, they choose a different path, one filled with thorns or rocky soil. They do not bear fruit and are miserable for it. The good steward is fruitful; he seeks the will of God and achieves the end for which he was sent.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: July 22 is the feast of Mary Magdalene. Who was she and is it true that she was a prostitute who followed Jesus around in his ministry?

Answer: Recent biblical scholarship has been trying for a long time to correct Mary Magdalene's misconstrued reputation as a prostitute. Biblical information reveals her as one of the most important disciples of Jesus, following and financially supporting him during his ministry. She is also a faithful witness both to the Crucifixion and the first to see the risen Jesus.

Her reputation as a prostitute arose from the misunderstandings of certain texts in Luke. Luke 8:2 reports Mary as being a follower of Jesus "from whom seven demons had gone out." This passage follows Luke's story of the sinful woman, a prostitute, who bathed Jesus' feet with her tears and dried them with her hair. Since that woman is not named, there came to be an association of that woman with Mary Magdalene, "from whom seven demons had gone out." Thus Mary became known as a prostitute. The readings and prayers for her feast day make no mention of her reputation as a sinner. Rather, they emphasize and highlight her role as the first witness to the risen Lord, and the first one commissioned by Jesus to tell of the good news to the disciples. Let us continue to be Mary Magdalene to the world.
