“FULLY ALIVE AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES”

December 9, 2018

Second Sunday of Advent

Jesus' cousin, John the Baptist, was a bit of a rogue character. He embraced life in the wilderness and preached a challenging message of change and repentance. John the Baptist was living as a missionary disciple before Jesus ever called His first disciples! Consider the wilderness that exists within you, within your own heart. How does the message of John the Baptist stir that wilderness into action? There is no need to fear or tame your wild heart -- instead, explore that place within you and allow the Holy Spirit to draw you deeper into your own commitment to being a disciple. A life of stewardship is not always easy or popular. Use this holy season to make a transition from the comfortable to the uncomfortable ... from the calm to the wilderness.

Contributions last Weekend $15,892.00
Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple, who recognizes and receives God's gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor!

Loved ones that have strayed from the Catholic Church?? Come join in prayer every Tuesday before the Fr. Wade Menezes, a member of the Fathers of Mercy, will lead our Parish Mission from Sunday January 20th through the 23rd each night at 7 pm.

The theme of the mission is "Work Out Your Salvation! (Phil 2:12)." Fr. Wade will encourage us all to reach holiness through fidelity to our daily work. This will be a time of great grace and mercy from God. Anyone is invited to come experience spiritual renewal through this Parish Mission and encouraged to attend all four nights.
The first three nights will include Eucharistic Adoration and the final night will include Holy Mass.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: On many Sundays, especially during Advent and Lent, we hear a reading from one of the prophets.
What is significant about them for us? Didn't Jesus fulfill all their predictions?

Answer: Lent and Advent are the times of the church year when the prophetic word forms an important part of the liturgical season. Isaiah, Jeremiah, Baruch, and Zephaniah are just some of the prophets who offer powerful and essential lessons for Christians of any era.
Prophets do not predict the future. They are very much concerned about the present, calling Israel to follow once again the word of God.

The prophets witness to a life of faith. In the midst of an intense relationship with God, the prophets are very aware of their unworthiness to embrace this call from God and struggle to accept the mission God entrusts to them.

The prophets speak on behalf of God. Each testifies that the word spoken is not from them but from God. At times, this lands them in trouble with their audience.
Jeremiah, for example, felt betrayed by God as the prophetic message was delivered. People did not like the message because of their sin-filled lives, and their displeasure was taken out on the prophet. While tempted at times to "throw in the towel," the prophets remained true to the life of faith and persevered in the proclamation of God's word. In modeling these virtues and calling us to greater fidelity, the prophets offer an example and message that are still important to us today.
