“FULLY ALIVE AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES”

May 5, 2019

Third Sunday of Easter

Since the beginning of Christianity, Jesus’ disciples have been persecuted for sharing their beliefs. Over the course of two thousand years, those persecutions have taken on different forms. In today’s reading from Acts, we see direct orders from the governing officials and Jewish leaders that attempt to shut down the chaos in the wake of Jesus’ death. The apostles, however, were undeterred. In fact, Acts 5:41 says that these earliest missionary disciples “left the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name.” While there are many places in the world that still punish Christians with violence, we are fortunate that our country allows us the freedom to worship as we please, but this does not mean that we are not also persecuted for those beliefs. Sadly, it is the culture itself that often tries to stifle the Christian message. In the face of the media, social apps, and “fake news,” it can be intimidating to stand up and proclaim the Gospel. Christians are often shamed into silence. It is time for us to look again at the example set by the apostles! We have been baptized into the same Christian community that they were, and we have been given the same mission that they were: go and make disciples of all nations! Let us remember our call to discipleship and be willing to “suffer dishonor for the sake of the name.”

Contributions last Weekend $11,194.00

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:

How do I bring God into the work of my daily life?

Answer:

Whatever your daily work, you have an opportunity to encounter God and to follow His commandments in love. In the New Testament, we see that most of the Apostles didn't have a previous religious position. They were fishermen, tax collectors, and political activists. St. Paul was a tentmaker. Among the saints, we have doctors, lawyers, farmers, and stay-at-home moms. No matter your daily tasks, God can be present there!

One way concerns behavior. Start with an examination of conscience. Look at areas where you tend to struggle to imitate Christ at work. Do you gossip? Does brimming frustration become impatience at home? Pick one sin you struggle with, then choose a virtue to strengthen that area. If you tend to speak poorly of your co-workers, resolve to stop and to say one kind thing a day instead.

Another way relates to perspective, particularly your perspective of others. Jesus' incarnation reminds us of the value of every human being. Jesus is God, and each of us is created in God's image. When you encounter another person, you have an opportunity to see God in a new place and a new way - in that person in front of you. Genuinely listen to them and be present to their concerns. Loving your neighbor is loving God! Our relationship with God and the love He inspires in our hearts shouldn't remain only at church on Sunday. We can - and should - let our faith animate our lives!
