“FULLY ALIVE AS MISSIONARY DISCIPLES”

June 2, 2019

Seventh Sunday of Easter

Acts 1:5: “...for John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.” This verse from the first reading might cause us to take pause and consider the difference between the two kinds of baptism. Is one inferior to the other? The word baptism comes from a Greek word meaning “to immerse.” John preached a message of repentance, and his baptism — an immersion in water — was an outward mark of that repentance. Jesus, however, spoke of a baptism in the Holy Spirit, one that plunges people deeper into the Kingdom of God. When we reflect on our own baptism, we must consider both aspects: the water as a sign of repentance and the Spirit, which compels us to know and proclaim the Kingdom of God. As baptized Christians, we are certainly Fully Alive, but we must consciously choose to be Missionary Disciples. Like Jesus, we have to allow our baptism to open our hearts and our minds to God’s will. A good steward means cooperating with His will.

Contributions last Weekend $10,282.00

Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple, who recognizes and receives God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:

Why is the Easter season so long? And should we be doing something special for it?

Answer:

You've probably noticed the priest continuing to where white vestments at the Sunday liturgy. While we celebrated Christ's resurrection several weeks ago, the Easter season extends fifty days - just over seven weeks - from Easter Sunday to Pentecost. For most of that time - about six weeks - Jesus is still with the disciples, teaching and encouraging them. The Easter season isn't just a celebration of when Jesus is with us. At the Last Supper, Jesus promised to send an "advocate" or "counselor" when he left. At the Ascension, he directs the disciples to await "power from on high" - the coming of the Holy Spirit. The Ascension completes the paschal mystery, beginning with Jesus' suffering and death and continuing in the resurrection. But the Holy Spirit ushers in a new era for the Church.

After spending weeks in prayer, fasting, and service during Lent, it may seem odd that we don't widely have similar practices for Easter. That doesn't mean you can't embrace the season! Commit to taking moments of little joy throughout the weeks, like random acts of kindness towards others. Consider reading the Acts of the Apostles to learn more about the early Church or picking up an Easter devotional to pray with. He is still risen indeed!
