“Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples”

August 4, 2019

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

When we look at today’s readings, we see examples of the anti-stewardship mindset. In the first reading, we have Qoheleth, who basically minimizes the value of life to his wealth and possessions, of which he has none. His tone is somewhat resentful that for all his hard work, he has nothing to show for it at the end of his life. Then in the Gospel, Jesus has to point out possessions are not the indicator of a “rich” life, and that we should “take care to guard against all greed.” Being a good steward means showing gratitude by sharing our blessings and using them to enrich the lives of one another. It does not mean building bigger barns to store the gifts we have been given. This applies not only to our wealth and possessions, but to every aspect of our lives as disciples. Let us open our minds and hearts to our call to stewardship!

Contributions last Weekend $13,830.00
*Stewardship is the grateful response of a Christian disciple, who recognizes and receives
God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor!*

Mondays thru Fridays 7:15 am.

Loved ones that have strayed from the Catholic Church?? Come join in prayer every Tuesday before the

From St. Pat's Cafeteria:

We would like to express our sincere appreciation for the continued support of our school lunch program with donations of beef, garden vegetables and monetary support. Your generosity helps us to maintain an exceptional program for our students here at St. Patrick's. We know they appreciate it as much as we do. In order to continue providing the best for our children, we will continue to graciously accept your donations to our program. Beef is always welcome, garden vegetables such as zucchini, tomatoes, cucumbers and melons are always a hit with the children, as well as monetary support. We are also looking for volunteers in our lunchroom Monday through Friday from 11:00-12:15. If you have time to give an hour with us, we would be grateful. Duties would include helping supervise children using the salad bar, assisting young children, helping kitchen staff serve items to name a few. Please consider giving of your time. Contact Dana Weninger at 620-491-0130 with any questions or if you'd be happy to come assist us. Thank you again,

Dana Weninger & Jackie Schonlau

Thank you to all who helped stripe the church and school parking lots.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

God Gives Us What We Need

A few months back, my wife and I helped move my oldest son into his first real apartment. He was moving to start his first real job and was excited and cautious at the same time. Moving him in reminded me of when his mother and I were first starting out. We received an old couch from her aunt, some kitchen supplies from my mom, and many other things from friends and relatives so we could begin this new journey in our lives. We didn't have much. But we had one another, and we had love. Looking back, those were great times.

Sometimes, we think material possessions give evidence of a life lived well. Artifacts from our travels, collections that take time to amass and provide clues to our interests, and various pictures and prints that adorn our walls. However, those who have lived lives of hardship and pain have many of the same items. Not only doesn't all our stuff amount to real evidence of what our life has really been like, but it doesn't make our lives better either.

What makes a life well lived will be the love and compassion that we have experienced, primarily with God who loves us so deeply. Due to that love, God gives to us what we need, not always what we want. More stuff will never amount to anything in comparison to what God provides to us. If we reflected on that truth more, perhaps we would spend less time accumulating things and more time simply loving.

On that moving day, I wanted to give my son more material things than was possible. However, what he really needs then, now, and always is my love.
