“Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples”

August 11, 2019

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Discipleship demands 100% faith in God and His plans for our lives. In the second reading, Paul describes the faith of Abraham, who obeyed God’s commands, accepted the mission laid before him, and trusted that God would provide all He’d promised to provide. In the reading from Luke, we hear Jesus giving a similar message to his disciples: “Sell your belongings and give alms.” His message is to stop clinging to that which is worldly and in your control. “Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom.” Our call to discipleship can seem reckless and scary. We want to be prepared to handle situations on Earth, but Jesus says leave those to God and work instead toward being prepared for the kingdom, “for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.”

Contributions last Weekend $16,176.00

*Stewardship is the grateful response of a
Christian disciple, who recognizes and receives
God’s gifts and shares these gifts in love of God and neighbor!*

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question:

I'd like to pray each day, but I can't seem to find the time. Do you have any suggestions?

Answer:

There are a lot of different ways to incorporate prayer into your daily routine. Start small by setting aside 10 or 15 minutes at natural breaks in your day, like first thing in the morning, during your lunch hour or a child's nap time, or as the evening winds down just after you've brushed your teeth. Put your phone on do not disturb or in airplane mode and set a timer. That way, you won't be interrupted by others calling or texting - or by yourself checking the time! Pick a place to pray, and sit in the same spot every day. The routine of place can help with focus.

Start with something simple. Scripture is a great start. Pray a single psalm slowly and consider how it relates to your life. Look up the daily Mass Gospel reading on your phone and take the same approach. Take some time to pray for others. Tick off five intentions on your hand each day, or assign each day of the week to a specific person or area of need (i.e., on Mondays, remember the poor, on Tuesdays, pray for your parish, Wednesdays, your extended family). Remember to share honestly with God. Don't be afraid to speak to Him in your heart as you would a friend out loud. Love grows in real relationship.
